Greetings from Lancaster County!

Come out and meet our fellow craftsmen friends! This cooperative partnership came together to help our customers find other locally handcrafted items such as wholesale furniture, gifts, framed art, candles, and toys. As friends, we frequently recommend each other because our customer service and business philosophies are similar, and we believe in each other's products. We look forward to meeting you!

What is this tour?

- For two days in late August, you can visit our shops and get to know our friends & their products.
- Enjoy food & drinks at each location.
- Look for special offers at some shops.
- Collect up to $200 in gas gift cards.
A $10 card is available at each location you visit (see each member's page in this booklet for purchase requirement.)

Must provide proof of business ownership (business card or tax ID#).*

Blue Spruce Crafts • 823 Noble Rd, Christiana, PA 17509 • Phone: 717.286.7181

In June of 2018, Sylvan and his brother Johnny were cleaning up the lumber shed and again came upon a growing pile of lumber there seemed to be no use for. Thinking about his family's desperate financial need, an idea hit them: a barrel. And the rest is history. Today, Blue Spruce Crafts distributes tens of thousands of decorative barrels as well as many other home-designed products throughout the year.

In 1999, Sam Stoltzfus started a full-time business in a horse barn making nothing but flower planters. As the years passed, he added hundreds more products, dedicating himself to a labor of love: creating a thriving family enterprise founded on hard work, honesty, and honoring the Lord. Specializing in finishes from milk paint techniques to crackle surfaces with durable catalyzed lacquer glaze, his distressed and antique finishes make your new piece of furniture feel like it's been in your family for years.
